DETAILED ACTION

Response to Amendment

Specification

The objection to the Abstract is herein withdrawn. The Applicant has successfully amended the Abstract to comply with maximum 150 word count.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The rejection of claims 23, 24 and 27-24 is herein withdrawn in view of the amendment filed on 9-16-03.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The rejection of claims 1-22, 25-26 and 35-38 based on 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over the Barni patent (US 6,064,981) in view of the Brown patent (US 5,794,219) is herein withdrawn in view of the Amendment filed 9-16-03.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

Claims 1-16, 23-31 and 34-40 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter. Claims 1-40 lack any specific reference to technology. Although the claims state "an electronic market" and "in electronic communication" the claims do not specify any specific technology. It is the position of the Patent Office that some specific form of technology needs to be claimed, i.e. a computer, a data storage unit, etc. The Board of Patent Appeals and Interferences has stated claims that lack technology are nonstatutory and are “nothing more than an abstract idea which is not tied to any technological art and is not a useful art as contemplated by the Constitution.” Ex parte Bowman, 61 USPQ2d 1669, 1671 (Bd. Pat. App. & Inter. 2001)(Unpublished). While the Bowman case is not considered precedential, it is cited herein for its reasoning and rationale.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 17-22 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter: none of the cited prior art of record shows, discloses or teaches an electronic market system wherein the buyers and sellers are capable of designating selected other buyers and sellers as preferred trading partners, as presently claimed.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments, see Amendment A, filed 9-16-03, with respect to claims 1-38 have been fully considered and are persuasive. However, the application remains rejected based on the new grounds of rejection set forth in the present Office Action.
